

THE ESSENTIAL

BY SABINE MARCELIS

GLASS PLATE BALANCING
ON A SINGLE LEG

Minimalistic, but warm. No hotchpotch, no distraction. Only that what you really need: a large table, chairs, and a coat rack. In this space, Sabine Marcelis only uses pure forms. A large glass plate balancing on one single leg functions as a table, surrounded by the iconic SE69 chairs by Martin Visser, which Sabine gave a subtle makeover. It makes for a stylized, yet warm room. The light object above the table and the colours of the other objects in the room come in warm but bright colours, that will light up any meeting.
